

Contents

1	A Thematic History of Bilingual Education in the Northern Territory	1
	Brian Devlin, Samantha Disbray and Nancy Devlin
2	A Glimmer of Possibility	11
	Brian Devlin
3	Reflecting on Team Teaching	27
	Beth Graham
4	‘Bilingual Time’ at Willowra: The Beginnings of a Community-Initiated Program, 1976–1977	35
	Petronella Vaarzon-Morel and Jim Wafer
5	Lessons Learned from Bilingual Education	49
	Kathryn Gale
6	Starting Out at Bamyili: Factors Specific to the Development of the Kriol Program	61
	Dorothy Meehan
7	Boom and then Bust: Lessons Learnt from My Time Teaching in Three Bilingual Schools in the Northern Territory	73
	Mary-Anne Gale
8	The Policy Framework for Bilingual Education in Australian Indigenous Languages in the Northern Territory	85
	Graham McKay
9	Consolidation, Power Through Leadership and Pedagogy, and the Rise of Accountability, 1980–1998	101
	Samantha Disbray and Brian Devlin

10	The Development of Successful Bilingual, Biliterate and Bicultural Pedagogy: Place for Tiwi Teachers and Tiwi Language in Learning	113
	Frances Murray
11	Developing Local Curriculum Materials—Learning Metaphors, Insightful Collaborations, Community Involvement	127
	Michael Christie
12	The Quest for Community Control at Yirrkala School	141
	Trevor Stockley, Banbapuy Ganambarr, Dhungala Munungurr, M. Munungurr, Greg Wearne, W.W. Wunumurra, Leon White and Yalmay Yunupijū
13	Language Revitalisation in a Bilingual Program—The Case of Numbulwar School	149
	Therese Carr, Melanie Wilkinson and Philippa Stansell
14	Threatened Closure: Resistance and Compromise (1998–2000)	165
	Brian Devlin
15	Defending Our Program at Wadeye	179
	Tobias Ngardinithi Nganbe
16	Sources of Evidence on Student Achievement in Northern Territory Bilingual Education Programs	185
	Brian Devlin
17	Policy Change in 2008: Evidence-Based or a Knee-Jerk Response?	203
	Brian Devlin
18	The Areyonga Case: Utulu Kutju Nintiringanyi ‘Learning Together’	219
	Leonard Freeman, Neil Bell, Tarna Andrews and Peggy Gallagher
19	Policy and Practice Now	237
	Samantha Disbray
20	Starting Out at Yuendumu School—Teaching in Our Own Language	247
	Tess Ross and Wendy Baarda
21	Stories from Central Australian Indigenous Community Schools in the Pintupi-Luritja Region	259
	Meg Mooney
22	Yipirinya School: That Generation, This Generation	269
	Inge Kral

23	The Program at Wadeye, Past and Present.	285
	Deminhimpuk Francella Bunduck and Teresa Ward
24	We Did It! A Case Study of Bilingual/Bicultural Education at Ltyentye Apurte Catholic School.	293
	Ailsa Purdon and Imelda Palmer
25	Forty Years on: Seeking a Way for the Future—Dhawal'yurr Yuwalkku Dhukarr. Reflections on Bilingual Education at Shepherdson College, Galiwin'ku.	307
	Noela Hall
26	Reminiscences: Working Together in a Bilingual Classroom.	325
	Nancy R.F. Devlin and Dorothy Gapany
27	Reflections on My Years at Elcho and Mäpuru (1978–2015).	331
	John Greateorex
28	Digital Futures for Bilingual Books	347
	Catherine Bow, Michael Christie and Brian Devlin
	Afterword	355
	Glossary	365
	Places Index	367
	NT Languages Index	369
	Other Languages Index	371
	Subject Index	373

History of Bilingual Education in the Northern Territory
People, Programs and Policies

Devlin, B.C.; Disbray, S.; Devlin, N.R.F. (Eds.)

2017, XXVII, 375 p. 22 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-2076-6