

Contents

1	Introduction to Sustainable Employment	1
1.1	Introduction	1
1.2	Effects of Socioeconomic Shifts on the UAE Labor Market	2
1.3	Sustainable Economic Development with Emiratization as the Catalyst	3
	References	4
2	UAE Goes Global	7
2.1	The Transition from a Traditional Economy to a Global Economy	7
2.1.1	Overview of Pre-oil Society	8
2.1.2	Pre-oil Era Economics	9
2.1.3	Nationalization Without Fanfare or Celebrations	10
2.1.4	Economic Growth Commences	10
2.1.5	Preparing for a UAE Without Oil	11
2.1.6	Emiratization and Privatization as the Way Forward	12
2.2	Progress from Diversification Efforts	13
2.3	Surviving the Global Economic Crisis and Falling Oil Prices	14
2.4	Population Growth and Composition	15
2.5	International Attention	17
2.5.1	Professional Development and Academia	18
2.5.2	Sporting Events	18
2.5.3	Film Industry	18
2.5.4	World Expo 2020	19
2.6	Economic Development Indicators and Regional Corporate Business Hubs	21
2.7	Stability in a Troubled Region	22
2.8	Summary	23
	References	23

3	Economic Vision of the UAE	27
3.1	The UAE Vision for 2021 and Beyond	27
3.2	The Emirate of Abu Dhabi	29
3.3	The Emirate of Dubai	33
3.4	The Emirate of Sharjah	34
3.5	The Emirate of Ras al Khaimah	34
3.6	The Emirate of Fujairah	35
3.7	The Emirate of Ajman	35
3.8	The Emirate of Umm al Quwain	36
3.9	Summary	36
	References	37
4	Challenges to Full Emirati Employment	39
4.1	The First Steps in Post-nationalization Development	39
4.2	Formation Multi-sector Economy	40
4.3	Role of Cultural Sensitivity in Emiratization	44
4.4	Role of Emiratis in Emiratization	45
4.5	Holistic Sustainability as a Framework for Discussing Emiratization	46
4.6	Summary	46
	References	47
5	The Roles and Contributions of Women	49
5.1	Emirati Women and the Economic Vision of the Country	49
5.2	Historical Female Roles and Contributions	50
5.3	Inclusive Education for Women	51
5.4	Women as Largely Untapped Labor Source	52
5.5	Emirati Women in the Workforce	52
5.6	Case Study of Young Adult Emirati Women and Marriage	53
5.7	Summary	55
	References	55
6	Wages, Salaries, and Expatriate Labor	57
6.1	Sources of Labor Market Data	57
6.2	General Salary Information	60
6.3	Salaries by Nationality	61
6.4	Salaries by Industry and Occupation	63
6.5	Salaries by Education Level	66
6.6	Salaries by Age	66
6.7	Salaries by Location	67
6.8	Salaries by Economic Sector: Private, Public, Semi-government	68
6.9	Salaries by Gender	68
6.10	Summary	69
	References	70

7	Wage Remittances from the UAE	73
7.1	Migrant Labor as a Reality in the Modern Global Economy	73
7.2	Growing Importance of Wage Remittances to Developing Countries	75
7.3	Top Wage Remittance Countries	76
7.4	UAE Remittance Outflows: The Case of Pakistan	76
7.5	Hawala Transfers Masking Full Impact of Remittances	78
7.6	Summary	82
	References	83
8	Social Transitions Contributing to Emirati Unemployment	85
8.1	Tribal Nature of Emirati Society	85
8.2	Emirati Society Transitioning into the Present	86
8.2.1	Demographic and Family Structure Transitions	86
8.2.2	Transitions in Education and Emirati Young Adult Perceptions	87
8.2.3	Compulsory National Service for Emirati Males	88
8.3	Multilayer Generational Gap	89
8.3.1	Elder Adults (Older Than 65 Years Old)	90
8.3.2	Prime-Age Adults (from 46 to 65 Years Old)	90
8.3.3	Mature Adults (from 26 to 45 Years Old)	90
8.3.4	Young Adults (from 18 to 25 Years Old)	91
8.3.5	Youth (Less Than 18 Years Old)	92
8.4	Summary	93
	References	93
9	Education, the Work Force, and Emiratization	95
9.1	Creating an Educational System	95
9.2	Factors for Early Exit from the Educational System	97
9.3	Postsecondary Education Overview	99
9.3.1	Gender Imbalance in Postsecondary Education	100
9.3.2	Postsecondary Education Best Practices and Technology	101
9.3.3	Family Involvement in Postsecondary Education	102
9.4	Progress Toward Educational Goals	107
9.5	Remaining Challenges in Education	108
	References	109
10	Emiratization Progress and Challenges	113
10.1	Underlying Dichotomy of Sustainability Versus Complementarity of Labor	113
10.2	Costs and Benefits of Emirati and Expatriate Employees	114
10.3	A Look Toward the Future	115
	References	118
	Index	121

<http://www.springer.com/978-981-10-2764-2>

Emiratization in the UAE Labor Market
Opportunities and Challenges

Daleure, G.

2017, XIII, 122 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-2764-2