

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Kylie Smith, Kate Alexander and Sheralyn Campbell
Part I Feminism(s) Reconceptualising Histories
2	Feminism and the Development of Early Childhood Education in Australia	11
	Margaret M. Coady
3	The Didgeridoo, an Instrument of Oppression or Decolonisation?	25
	Sue Lopez-Atkinson
4	Celebrating Pioneering and Contemporary Feminist Approaches to Studying Gender in Early Childhood	35
	Jayne Osgood and Kerry H. Robinson
5	Black Feminist Thought in Early Childhood Studies: (Re)Centering Marginalized Feminist Perspectives	49
	Michelle Salazar Pérez
Part II Feminism(s) Reconceptualising Institutions
6	The Entangled Enlivening of Being: Feminist Research Strategies in the Early Years	65
	Bronwyn Davies
7	Enhancing Feminism and Childhoods in Kenya Through Stronger Education Policy, Access, and Action	75
	Mercy Musomi and Beth Blue Swadener

8	What's Wrong with Equality? Developing a Critical Conceptual Understanding of Equality of Condition in Early Childhood Care and Education	89
	Colette Murray
9	Love and the Nuclear Family in the Kindergarten: Critical Analyses of Heteronormativities	105
	Marcela Montserrat Fonseca Bustos
Part III Feminism(s) Reconceptualising Practice
10	Time and Relationship: Paternal and Maternal Tensions in Teacher Narratives	121
	Sonya L. Gaches
11	Engaging with Feminist Poststructuralism to Inform Gender Equity Practice in Early Childhood Classrooms in Pakistan	135
	Audrey D'Souza Juma
12	Feminism and Early Childhood Education in Indonesia: Teachers' Reflections	149
	Sri Marpinjun and Patricia G. Ramsey
13	Gender Identities in the Australian Early Years Learning Framework	165
	Rebecca Simpson-Dal Santo
14	Are We There Yet? Gender Equity Journeys in Early Childhood Practice	179
	Sheralyn Campbell, Kate Alexander and Kylie Smith

Feminism(s) in Early Childhood

Using Feminist Theories in Research and Practice

Smith, K.; Alexander, K.; Campbell, S. (Eds.)

2017, XX, 192 p. 5 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-3055-0