

Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	No. 9 Courtyard and Rural China	23
3	The “Seniors” in the No. 9 Courtyard	29
4	Wan Li and the Rural Reform	47
5	Rural Reform and Local Reformers	77
6	A Historical Review on Local Government Reform	89
7	Grassroots Governance: Cautions for the Government	101
8	What Is “Rural Governance”?	109
9	New Governance of the New Countryside	117
10	Institutional Environment for Township Governments	123
11	The Fundamental Driving Force for Grassroots Government Reform	131
12	Grassroots Organizations and Grassroots Democracy	137
13	Civil Organizations and Grassroots Democracy	143
14	Grassroots Democracy and Construction of the Chinese Legal System	149
15	Grassroots Democracy and Social Harmony	157
16	The “Leadership” and “Dominant Role” of Grassroots Democracy	165
17	The Problem of “Participation” in Grassroots Democracy	171

18	The International Influence of Grassroots Democracy	179
19	Basic Strategies for Developing Democracy at the Grassroots Level.	185
20	A Story of Grazing Prohibition in a “Weak” Village	193
21	The Story of Bridge Reparation in a “Poor” Village	201
22	The Story of Road Repairing in a “Chaotic” Village	207
23	Changing Villages	213
24	Sharply Different Villages	219
25	Enlightenment of “Peasant’s Consciousness”	225
26	Looking Back Three Decades	231
27	Social Opportunities of Schools for Children of Rural Migrant Workers	239
28	An American Scholar’s Chinese Peasant Study	247
29	Peasants’ Footsteps and Institutional Reform	253
30	A Quarter Century of Peasants’ Petition	259
31	The Significance of Subaltern Studies to China	271
	Postscript for the Enlarged Edition	277

<http://www.springer.com/978-981-10-4339-0>

The Politics of Peasants

Zhao, S.

2017, XI, 278 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-4339-0