

CONTENTS

1	China–Japan Paradox: Antagonism Despite Interdependency	1
	Lam Peng Er
 Part I Overview of Bilateral Relations: Local and National
2	Forty-four Years of Sino–Japanese Diplomatic Relations Since Normalization	25
	Takahara Akio
3	Growing Interdependency Between China and Japan: Trade, Investment, Tourism, and Education	67
	Fan Ying
4	A Clash of Nationalisms: Sino–Japanese Relations in the Twenty-First Century	83
	Yang Lijun
5	Japan’s “Postmodern” Possibility with China: A View from Kansai	103
	Satoh Haruko

Part II China and Japan in Multilateral Settings: Cooperation and Competition

- 6 China and Japan in East Asian Arrangements: More Rivalry, Less Interdependence 133
Chung Chien-peng
- 7 China, Japan, and the Greater Mekong Basin: A Southeast Asian Perspective 155
Keokam Kraisoraphong
- 8 China and Japan, in the Mekong Region: Competition and Cooperation 185
Bi Shihong

Part III China, Japan and Maritime Affairs: Traditional and Non-Traditional Security

- 9 Sino-Japanese Rivalry in Maritime Southeast Asia 205
Renato Cruz De Castro
- 10 Japan and the South China Sea Dispute: Preventing “Lake Beijing” 237
Lam Peng Er
- 11 China and Japanese “Soft Power” Projection: A Tangled Web of Culture, Geostrategic Competition, and Naval Power 263
Heng Yee-Kuang

Part IV Triangular Relations

- 12 The China-Japan-South Korea Trilateral Summit: Realpolitik or Liberal Peace? 291
Park Hahn-Kyu

13	Hong Kong and the Diaoyu/Senkaku Dispute in Sino-Japanese Relations	319
	Victor Teo
14	Japan and China in India's Foreign Policy	337
	Arpita Mathur
15	China and Japan in Australian Foreign Policy	355
	David Walton
	Index	377

China-Japan Relations in the 21st Century

Antagonism Despite Interdependency

Peng Er, L. (Ed.)

2017, XVII, 387 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-4372-7