

Contents

1	Perezhivanie, Emotions and Subjectivity: Setting the Stage	1
	Marilyn Fler, Fernando González Rey and Nikolai Veresov
Part I Perezhivanie
2	On the Concept of Perezhivanie: A Quest for a Critical Review	19
	Nelson Mok
3	The Concept of Perezhivanie in Cultural-Historical Theory: Content and Contexts	47
	Nikolai Veresov
4	Perezhivanie and Child Development: Theorising Research in Early Childhood	71
	Marie Hammer
Part II Emotions
5	Foregrounding Emotional Imagination in Everyday Preschool Practices to Support Emotion Regulation	85
	Marilyn Fler
6	The Role of Imagination and Anticipation in Children's Emotional Development	105
	Sue March and Marilyn Fler
7	Everyday Family Routine Formation: A Source of the Development of Emotion Regulation in Young Children	129
	Feiyan Chen

8	Beyond Pathologizing Education: Advancing a Cultural Historical Methodology for the Re-positioning of Children as Successful Learners	145
	Marilyn Fleer and Fernando González Rey
Part III Subjectivity
9	Advances in Subjectivity from a Cultural-Historical Perspective: Unfoldings and Consequences for Cultural Studies Today	173
	Fernando González Rey
10	Epistemological and Methodological Issues Related to the New Challenges of a Cultural–Historical-Based Psychology	195
	Fernando González Rey and Albertina Mitjáns Martínez
11	The Relevance of the Concept of Subjective Configuration in Discussing Human Development	217
	Fernando González Rey, Albertina Mitjáns Martínez, Maristela Rossato and Daniel Magalhães Goulart
Part IV New Challenges and Perspectives
12	Continuing the Dialogue: Advancing Conceptions of Emotions, Perezhivanie and Subjectivity for the Study of Human Development	247
	Marilyn Fleer, Fernando González Rey and Nikolai Veresov
	Index	263

Perezhivanie, Emotions and Subjectivity

Advancing Vygotsky's Legacy

Fleer, M.; González Rey, F.; Veresov, N. (Eds.)

2017, VIII, 265 p. 8 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-4532-5