

Contents

Foreword	v
1 Monash University International Professional Experience Program	1
Judy Williams, Ange Fitzgerald and Graham Parr
2 Tourist, Tour Guide, Traveller, Travel Agent? Reflections on Leading and Learning from International Professional Experiences	15
Ange Fitzgerald
3 Pre-service Teachers' International Teaching Placement: Outcomes for the Accompanying Academic	29
Gillian Kidman, Catherine Lang and Marcelle Cacciattolo
4 Self-Interest and Ethical Praxis Agendas in an International Teaching Practicum	47
Graham Parr, Julie Faulkner and Craig Rowe
5 Going with the Flow: Pre-service Teacher Learning in, About and with Community	63
Robyn Babaeff
6 Mentoring-Learning in a Cross-Language and Cross-Cultural Framework: Australian Pre-service Teachers and Israeli Mentor-Teachers	77
Janina Kahn-Horwitz, David Mittelberg, Roberta Bell-Kligler and Rachael Gelfman Schultz
7 Building Intercultural Competence and Professional Confidence Through Collaboration in an Italian IPE	95
Libby Tudball and Michael Phillips

8	Outside in: Learning from an International Professional Experience Program	111
	Pearl Subban and Allie Clemans
9	The Influence of an International Context on a Teacher Educator's Knowledge, Practice and Identity	125
	Michael Phillips
10	Acknowledging and Learning from Discomfort: The Learners' Perspective	139
	Gillian Kidman, Zoe Davies and Cassy Eaton
11	Resilience, Global Threat, and International Professional Experience	153
	Julie Faulkner, Anne Keary and Jan Drew
12	Learning from Leading: A Teacher Educator's Perspective of Learning Through Leading an International Professional Experience	169
	Judy Williams

Narratives of Learning Through International Professional Experience

Fitzgerald, A.; Parr, G.; Williams, J. (Eds.)

2017, XII, 184 p. 8 illus., 2 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-4866-1