

Contents

Disruptive Technologies Shaping the Law of the Future	1
Marcelo Corrales, Mark Fenwick and Nikolaus Forgó
Part I Purpose and Limitation
The Principle of Purpose Limitation and Big Data	17
Nikolaus Forgó, Stefanie Hännold and Benjamin Schütze
Scientific Research and Academic e-Learning in Light of the EU's Legal Framework for Data Protection.	43
Cecilia Magnusson Sjöberg
Internet of Things: Right to Data from a European Perspective.	65
Christine Storr and Pam Storr
Right to be Forgotten: A New Privacy Right in the Era of Internet	97
Yuriko Haga
Part II Innovation Intermediaries
Intermediaries and Mutual Trust: The Role of Social Capital in Facilitating Innovation and Creativity	129
Shinto Teramoto and Paulius Jurčys
Nudging Cloud Providers: Improving Cloud Architectures Through Intermediary Services	151
Marcelo Corrales and George Kousiouris
A Brokering Framework for Assessing Legal Risks in Big Data and the Cloud	187
Marcelo Corrales and Karim Djemame

Internet Intermediaries and Copyright Enforcement in the EU: In Search of a Balanced Approach	223
Ioannis Revolidis
 Part III Digital Evidence
The Collection of Electronic Evidence in Germany: A Spotlight on Recent Legal Developments and Court Rulings.	251
Nikolaus Forgó, Christian Hawellek, Friederike Knoke and Jonathan Stoklas
LegalAIze: Tackling the Normative Challenges of Artificial Intelligence and Robotics Through the Secondary Rules of Law	281
Ugo Pagallo
In the Shadow of Banking: Oversight of Fintechs and Their Service Companies	301
Daniel Bunge
Index	327

New Technology, Big Data and the Law

Corrales Compagnucci, M.; Fenwick, M.; Forgo, N. (Eds.)

2017, XVI, 330 p. 17 illus., 7 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-5037-4