

CONTENTS

1	Assessing Militarised Responses to Transnational Organised Crime	1
	Sasha Jespersen
2	Soldiers in a Storm: Why and How Do Responses to Illicit Economies Get Militarised?	11
	Mark Shaw
 Part I Wildlife Crime
3	Militarised Responses to the Illegal Wildlife Trade	25
	Jasper Humphreys and M.L.R. Smith
4	An Unwinnable War: Rhino Poaching in the Kruger	43
	Julian Rademeyer
5	Kenya's 'War on Poaching': Militarised Solutions to a Militarised Problem?	61
	Thomas J. Maguire

- 6 ‘A Blunt Instrument’: Addressing Criminal Networks with Military Responses, and the Impact on Law Enforcement and Intelligence 91
John M. Sellar

Part II Piracy

- 7 Replicating Success? A Military Response to Maritime Piracy, the Somalia Experience 109
Glen Forbes
- 8 Approaches to Piracy, Armed Robbery at Sea, and Other Maritime Crime in West and Central Africa 127
Ian Ralby
- 9 South East Asia Piracy: Have We Learnt from Somali Counter-Piracy Operations? 151
Karsten von Hoesslin and Lucia Bird Ruiz-Benitez de Lugo
- 10 Dangers of Success: The Economics of Somali Piracy 169
Anja Shortland

Part III Smuggling of Migrants

- 11 The New Migration Landscape: The Implications of a Militarised Response to Smuggling 187
Sumbul Rizvi
- 12 Smugglers Inc.: The Illicit Industry in Human Migration 203
Tuesday Reitano
- 13 The Militarisation of Migration: From Triton to Sofia: Assessing the Credibility of the EU’s Naval Interventions Against Migrant Smuggling in the Mediterranean 217
Peter Roberts

14	How US Customs and Border Protection Became the World's Largest Militarised Police Force	235
	Brian Erickson
Part IV Drug Trafficking
15	Militarisation of the Drug War in Latin America: A Policy Cycle Set to Continue?	259
	Jeremy McDermott
16	Beyond UNGASS 2016: Drug Control Multilateralism and the End to the 'War on Drugs'	279
	John Collins
17	The Development Impacts of the 'War on Drugs'	299
	Health Poverty Action
18	Responding to Drug Trafficking: A Question of Motives	323
	Sasha Jespersen
19	Situating Militarisation as Part of an Integrated Response to Organised Crime	339
	Tuesday Reitano
	Index	351

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-57564-3>

Militarised Responses to Transnational Organised Crime

The War on Crime

Reitano, T.; Jespersen, S.; Bird Ruiz-Benitez de Lugo, L.

(Eds.)

2018, XV, 359 p. 18 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-57564-3