

CONTENTS

Pasts to Be Unveiled: The Interconnections Between the International and the Imperial	1
Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo and José Pedro Monteiro
 Part I Internationalism(s) in an Imperial World: the Interwar Years
 Towards a Social History of International Organisations: The ILO and the Internationalisation of Western Social Expertise (1919–1949)	33
Sandrine Kott
 Internationalism and Nationalism in the League of Nations' Work for Intellectual Cooperation	59
Daniel Laqua
 A League of Empires: Imperial Political Imagination and Interwar Internationalisms	87
Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo

- The Rise of a Humanitarian Superpower: American NGOs and International Relief, 1917–1945 127
Daniel Roger Maul

- Depression Development: The Interwar Origins of a Global US Modernization Agenda 147
David Ekbladh

Part II Imperialism(s) and International Institutions: the Aftermath of World War II

- Population, Geopolitics and International Organizations in the Mid Twentieth Century 167
Alison Bashford

- Re-mapping the Borders of Imperial Health: The World Health Organization and the International Politics of Regionalization in French North Africa, 1945–1956 191
Jessica Pearson

- “One of Those Too-Rare Examples”: The International Labour Organization, the Colonial Question and Forced Labour (1961–1963) 221
José Pedro Monteiro

Part III Imperial Resiliencies in the Post-colonial World Order

- The Decolonization of Development: Rural Development in India Before and After 1947 253
Corinna R. Unger

The Anvil of Internationalism: The United Nations and Anglo-American Relations During the Debate Over Katanga, 1960–1963	279
Alanna O'Malley
“An Assembly of Peoples in Struggle”: How the Cold War Made Latin America Part of the “Third World”	307
Jason Parker
Globalisation and Internationalism Beyond the North Atlantic: Soviet-Brazilian Encounters and Interactions During the Cold War	327
Tobias Rupprecht
Author Index	353
Subject Index	361

Internationalism, Imperialism and the Formation of the Contemporary World

The Pasts of the Present

Jerónimo, M.B.; Monteiro, J.P. (Eds.)

2018, XVII, 365 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-60692-7