

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Nietzsche Contra Bismarck—Culture War	1
	The Unification of Germany and the Aftermath
	of the Franco-Prussian War: 1870–1871	1
	Culture War: 1871–1872	4
	Nietzsche Contra Bismarck: The Battle
	Over German Schools	6
	Nietzsche and the Kulturstaat	9
	Nietzsche’s Culture War: The Untimely Meditations	12
	Summary of Nietzsche’s Culture War	17
2	David Strauss the Confessor and the Writer	25
	Introduction: Why David Strauss?	25
	Who Was David Strauss?	28
	Strauss’s Readers and Nietzsche’s Readers	32
	Interpretation of David Strauss the Confessor
	and the Writer	35
	Section 1: The Problem of German Culture	36
	Section 2: The “Cultivated Philistine”	39
	Section 3: David Strauss the Genius?	43
	Sections 4–5: The Philistine’s Conception of Heaven as
	Easygoing Enlightenment	45
	Section 6: Strauss’s Uncourageous Optimism	48

Section 7: Strauss's Uncourageous Ethics	51
Sections 8–12: Strauss's Writing and a Prelude to the Science of the Future	56
3 The Use and Disadvantage of History for Life	69
Introduction: Nietzsche's Critique of Scientific and Philosophic History	69
Interpretation of The Use and Disadvantage of History for Life	74
Foreword and Section 1: The Depiction of a Feeling as a Universal Law	76
Section 2: Monumental History as the Cure for the Historical Sickness	84
Section 3, Part I: Antiquarian History and Degenerated Antiquarian History	89
Interlude on Sections 4–9: German Culture as Degenerated Antiquarian Culture	94
Section 3, Part II: The Second Untimely Meditation as Critical History	103
Section 10: An Historical Parable as the Bridge to Schopenhauer as Educator	112
4 Schopenhauer as Educator	127
Introduction: Nietzsche as Educator	127
Interpretation of Schopenhauer as Educator	131
Section 1: How One Discovers What One Is	134
Sections 2–3: The Impoverished Ethical Nature of Modern Man	139
Section 4: Bildung and Bild—The Redeeming Human Being as Cultivator of a New Image of Man	145
Section 5, Part I: The Human Animal and the "True Human Being"	152
Section 5, Part II: The Self-Conscious Longing for the Schopenhauerian Human Being	156
Section 5, Part III: Nietzsche's View of Nature as New and Improved Physis	158
Sections 6–8: Nietzsche's Cultural Teaching and the Modern State	162

5 Richard Wagner in Bayreuth	185
Introduction: Nietzsche in Bayreuth	185
Interpretation of Richard Wagner in Bayreuth	193
Section 1: Greatness and the Problem of History	196
Section 2: The Ruling Passion of the Genius	199
Section 3: Wagner as Monumental Historian and Creative Philosopher	201
Section 4: Revolution at Bayreuth	207
Sections 5–10: Recapitulation of the Artistic Genius's Sonata	211
Section 11: The Conclusion of Nietzsche's Culture War	216
Bibliography	227
Index	235

Nietzsche's Culture War

The Unity of the Untimely Meditations

Brooks, S.

2018, XVII, 241 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-61520-2