

CONTENTS

1	Introduction—Stewardship Reconsidered: Academic Work and the Faithful Christian	1
	T. Laine Scales and Jennifer L. Howell
 Part I Vocation and a Scholarly Life of Stewardship
2	Toward a Vision of Vocation	19
	Darin H. Davis
3	Vocation Is Something that Happens to You: Freedom, Education, and the American Literary Tradition	31
	Rachel B. Griffis
4	Putting Down Roots: Why Universities Need Gardens	51
	Jeffrey Bilbro and Jack R. Baker
5	Liberal Learning and Christian Practical Wisdom	73
	Mark Schwehn

Part II Faithful Teachers and Pedagogical Practices

- |           |  |            |
|-----------|--|------------|
| 6  | Ever Ancient, Ever New: Reading to Become Wise  | 93  |
|           | Matthew A. Rothaus Moser   |            |
| 7  | Pedagogical Practices: Lessons from Augustine of Hippo  | 117 |
|           | Jennifer L. Howell and T. Laine Scales   |            |
| 8  | “Expound This Love:” Forming the Next Generation of Christian Teacher-Scholars Through the Lilly Graduate Fellows Program | 131 |
|           | Jane Kelley Rodeheffer   |            |
| 9  | Intellectual Humility &amp; Higher Education  | 149 |
|           | David T. Echelbarger   |            |
| 10 | How Christian Faith Can Animate Teaching: A Taxonomy of Diverse Approaches  | 165 |
|           | Perry L. Glanzer, Nathan Alleman and David Guthrie   |            |

Part III Church and Academy: Stewarding our Faith and our Universities

- |           |  |            |
|-----------|--|------------|
| 11 | The Mind Is Its Own Place: Gnosticism and Why Scholars Need the Church                                      | 195 |
|           | Rev. Kyle Childress  |            |
| 12 | Imagining Structural Stewardship: Lessons in Resistance and Cultural Change from the Highlander Folk School | 205 |
|           | Emily Hunt and João Chaves   |            |
| 13 | William James’s Pragmatic Pluralism and the American University’s Loss of Soul                              | 221 |
|           | Karl Aho   |            |

14	The Ecclesial Turn: Putting Stanley Hauerwas's Vision for Christian Higher Education into Practice	239
	David C. Cramer
15	Rising from the Rubble: The Vital Significance of Christian Research Universities in the Twenty-First Century	253
	L. Gregory Jones
16	Afterword: Vocation, Stewardship, and Teaching: A Hopeful Response	269
	David I. Smith
	Index	281

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-61743-5>

Christian Faith and University Life
Stewards of the Academy
Scales, T.L.; Howell, J.L. (Eds.)
2018, XXI, 285 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-61743-5