

CONTENTS

Contested Knowledge: A Historical Anthropologist's Approach to European Witchcraft Willem de Blécourt	1
Witches and Devil's Magic in Austrian Demonological Legends Christa Agnes Tuczay	23
Hanna Dyâb's Witch and the Great Witch Shift Ruth B. Bottigheimer	53
The Mirror of the Witches (1600): A German Baroque Tragedy in Context Rita Voltmer	79
Unravelling the Myth and Histories of the Weighing Test at Oudewater: The Case of Leentje Willems Machteld Löwensteyn	101
The North Sea as a Crossroads of Witchcraft Beliefs: The Limited Importance of Political Boundaries Hans de Waardt	121

“Kind in Words and Deeds, but False in Their Hearts”: Fear of Evil Conspiracy in Late-Sixteenth-Century Denmark Louise Nyholm Kallestrup	137
“Ein gefehrlich Ding, darin leichtlich zuviel geschieht” (A Dangerous Thing in Which Too Much Happens Easily). The End of Village Witch Trials in the Saar Region Eva Labouvie	155
News from the Invisible World: The Publishing History of Tales of the Supernatural c.1660–1832 Jonathan Barry	179
Researching Reverse Witch Trials in Nineteenth- and Early Twentieth-Century England Owen Davies	215
The Catechism of Witch Lore in Twentieth-Century Denmark Gustav Henningsen	235
Magic and Counter-Magic in Twenty-First-Century Bosnia Mirjam Mencej	249
Index	269

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-63783-9>

Cultures of Witchcraft in Europe from the Middle Ages to the Present

Barry, J.; Davies, O.; Usborne, C. (Eds.)

2018, XXIV, 283 p. 3 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-63783-9