

CONTENTS

Introduction: Eugenics as a Transnational Subject: The British Dominions	1
Diane B. Paul, John Stenhouse and Hamish G. Spencer
‘Liberty of the Nation’: Eugenics in Australia and New Zealand and the Limits of Illiberalism	21
Stephen Garton
Eugenics in Canada: Choice, Coercion and Context	41
Erika Dyck
The Nature of Eugenic Thought and Limits of Eugenic Practice in Interwar Saskatchewan	63
Alex Deighton
Eugenic Sterilization in New Zealand: The Story of the Mental Defectives Amendment Act of 1928	85
Hamish G. Spencer
Debating Clause 21: ‘Eugenic Marriage’ in New Zealand	107
Angela Wanhalla

Undesirable Bill's Undesirables Bill: William Pember Reeves and Eugenics in Late-Victorian New Zealand John Stenhouse	129
Thinking Dangerous Thoughts: Post-primary Education and Eugenics in Australia: 1905–1939 Ross L. Jones	153
‘Of Eugenic Interest’? Baby Shows Before the Great War Caroline Daley	175
Sir Robert Stout as Freethinker and Eugenics Enthusiast Emma M. Gattety	195
Revisiting Three Eugenic Moments: 1903, 1928, 1937: The Disappointments and Hopes of Antipodean Progressives Charlotte Macdonald	219
Truby King, Infant Welfare and the Boundaries of Eugenics Diane B. Paul	243
‘Aristocrats of Knowledge’: Māori Anthropologists and the Survival of the ‘Race’ Barbara Brookes	267
Eugenics and the Maintenance of White Supremacy in Modern South Africa Susanne M. Klausen	289
Index	311

Eugenics at the Edges of Empire

New Zealand, Australia, Canada and South Africa

Paul, D.B.; Stenhouse, J.; Spencer, H.G. (Eds.)

2018, XVII, 320 p. 4 illus., 2 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-64685-5