

Contents

1	Re-activation Strategies, Experiences from Europe and USA	1
1.1	Before the Dismantling: Facing Threats and Weaknesses	3
1.1.1	French Policies Against Retail Desertification	3
1.2	During the Process: Supporting, Integrating and Repositioning	5
1.2.1	The EPARECA Case: The Lucien Sampaix Shopping Mall, Bagnolet	5
1.3	Demalling: How to Re-activate Big-Boxes and Urban Retail Districts?	9
1.3.1	Dismantled Big Boxes: Governance and Tools in U.S.	9
1.3.2	The Vital' Quartier Plan	13
1.3.3	An Innovative Legal Tool: Taxes on Closed Down Retail Surfaces	22
1.4	Reflecting on Cases: Strategies, Actors and Proposals	23
1.4.1	From Case Studies to Policy Innovation	24
	Appendix: Planned Centres: Medium and Large Scale Retail Distribution	29
	References	34
2	What Future for Vacant Retail Spaces? Recent Experiences in Italy	37
2.1	Identifying an Existing and Pervasive Phenomenon: Dimensions, Geographies and Characters	37
2.2	Re-thinking Urban Retail Systems and Sub-urban Dead Malls: Responsive Strategies for Retail Vacancy	41
2.2.1	The Reuse of Large Urban Buildings	41
2.2.2	Transformation of the Medium- and Large-Size Extra-Urban Containers	52

- 2.3 Recent Experiences: From Practices to an Integrated Methodology 59
 - 2.3.1 Public Policies Supporting Urban Retail System: Urban Retail District 59
 - 2.3.2 (Oriented) Policies for Urban Retail Systems 65
- Appendix 72
- References 74
- 3 Re-activating Retail Spaces: A Toolbox for Strategies, Policies and Pilot Projects 77
 - 3.1 Innovating the Planning, Spatial and Regulative Approaches to Retail Spaces 77
 - 3.2 Working on Retail, Re-activating the City: A Toolbox for Public and Private Actors 87
 - References 92
- Index 95

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-70871-3>

Re-activation of Vacant Retail Spaces
Strategies, Policies and Guidelines

Tamini, L.

2018, VIII, 96 p. 28 illus., 8 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-70871-3