

---

Contents

1	The Coast .....	1
1.1	Introduction.....	1
1.2	Characteristics .....	3
1.3	Preconditions for Living and Working at the Coast.....	5
1.4	Different Types of Land Use .....	7
	References.....	11
2	Historical Annotations .....	13
2.1	Encircling the Beginning: Where (I)CZM Started .....	13
2.2	Brief Outline of International ICZM Steps .....	18
2.3	European Developments.....	20
2.4	ICZM in Selected Member States of the EU .....	23
	References.....	31
3	Status: Basics of ICZM .....	35
3.1	Definition of ICZM: Some Suggestions .....	35
3.2	Principles for ICZM: A Compilation.....	38
3.3	Reflection on the Principles for ICZM .....	39
	References.....	47
4	Hydrology of (Shallow) Coastal Regions .....	49
4.1	The Water Cycle of Coastal Areas .....	49
4.2	Impacts of the Sea on Coastal Fresh Water Systems .....	51
4.3	Implications for (and of) Drainage Management.....	59
	References.....	61
5	Challenges: Sectoral Descriptions .....	63
5.1	Coastal Protection Management.....	63
5.2	Delineation of the Development in Northern Germany .....	73
5.3	Drainage Management .....	79
5.4	Estuaries in the Southern North Sea Region.....	86
	References.....	114

6 Prospects: Approaches of Integrated Management..... 121

6.1 Integrated Water Management for Quality and Quantity ..... 121

6.2 Integrated Estuary Management ..... 146

References..... 158

7 Prospects: Methodologies of Integration ..... 163

7.1 A Project Process Cycle ..... 163

7.2 Participatory Action ..... 165

7.3 Assessment Schemes ..... 171

7.4 Participatory Integrated Assessment..... 177

References..... 179

8 Exercises: Fictitious Case Studies ..... 183

8.1 Introduction..... 183

8.2 Problem 1: Eroding Coastal Stretch ..... 184

8.3 Problem 2: Small Harbor Accessibility ..... 187

8.4 Problem 3: Closure of a Bay ..... 190

References..... 193

Index ..... 195

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-658-17050-9>

Integrated Coastal Zone Management
Status, Challenges and Prospects

Ahlhorn, F.

2018, XVIII, 197 p. 89 illus., 50 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-658-17050-9