

Contents

Part I Armed Groups

- 1 Armed Groups, Rebel Coalitions, and Transnational Groups: The Degree of Organization Required from Non-State Armed Groups to Become Party to a Non-International Armed Conflict 3
Tilman Rodenhäuser
- 2 Welcome on Board: Improving Respect for International Humanitarian Law Through the Engagement of Armed Non-State Actors 37
Annyssa Bellal
- 3 Compliance with International Humanitarian Law by Non-State Armed Groups: How Can It Be Improved? 63
Hyeran Jo
- 4 Crime-Based Targeted Sanctions: Promoting Respect for International Humanitarian Law by the Security Council 89
Hilde D. Roskam
- 5 Engaging Armed Groups Through the Development of Human Rights Obligations: Incorporating Practice, Motivation and Ideology to Promote Compliance with International Law 119
Daragh Murray
- 6 Armed Groups and Procedural Accountability: A Roadmap for Further Thought 157
Katharine Fortin

Part II Other Articles

- 7 Knock on the Roof: Legitimate Warning or Method of Warfare? 183
Jeroen C. van den Boogaard

8 Year in Review 2016	211
Kate Pitcher, Sophie van der Valk and Geneviève Girard
Final Report ILA Study Group on the Conduct of Hostilities	287
Table of Cases	337
Index	343

In order to make the Correspondents' Reports immediately and widely available, they can be accessed online at www.asser.nl/YIHL/correspondentsreports.

This has the added benefit of the reports being fully searchable, thereby better serving the needs of scholars and practitioners.

Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law Volume 19,
2016

Gill, T.D.; McCormack, T.; Geiß, R.; Krieger, H.;
Paulussen, C. (Eds.)

2018, X, 362 p. 1 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-94-6265-212-5

A product of T.M.C. Asser Press