

Contents

1 Reflections on the Evolution of Financial Crises: Theory, History and Empirics . . . . .	1
Michael D. Bordo
2 The International Contagion of Short-Run Interest Rates During the Great Depression. . . . .	17
Samuel Maveyraud and Antoine Parent
3 Banking Crises and Lender of Last Resort in Theory and Practice in Swedish History, 1850–2010. . . . .	47
Anders Ögren
4 It is Always the Shadow Banks: The Regulatory Status of the Banks that Failed and Ignited America’s Greatest Financial Panics. . . . .	77
Hugh Rockoff
5 Milton Friedman and Anna J. Schwartz on the Inherent Instability of Fractional Reserve Banking . . . . .	107
Hugh Rockoff
6 Financial Crises and the Central Bank: Lessons from Japan During the 1920s . . . . .	131
Masato Shizume
7 Economic and Social Backgrounds of Top Executives of the Federal Reserve Before and After the Great Depression . . . . .	149
Isao Suto

Coping with Financial Crises

Some Lessons from Economic History

Rockoff, H.; Suto, I. (Eds.)

2018, XII, 192 p. 49 illus., 39 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-6195-0