

Contents

Part I Introduction

- 1 Culture, Communication and Capacity for Sustainable Development 3
Kiran Prasad

Part II Cultural and Ecological Foundations for Sustainable Development

- 2 Ecology and Sufficiency for Sustainable Development: Perspectives from Thailand 25
Patchanee Malikhao
- 3 Right Effort for Right Livelihood: Historical Model of Sustainable Development from Sri Lanka 37
Chandrika De Alwis
- 4 Traditional Knowledge Systems, Culture and Environmental Sustainability: Concepts from Odisha, India 51
Maitreyee Mishra

Part III Communication, Communities and Capacity

- 5 Toward the Sufficiency Economy Perspective: The Mass Media and Cultivation of Social Capital Among the Rural Youth in Thailand 69
Boonlert Supadhiloke
- 6 Making the Difference: Communicating Campaigns for Sustainable Development in the Opposition State of Penang, Malaysia 85
Mustafa K. Anuar and Shakila Abdul Manan

7	Communication for Development of the Nilgiri Biosphere Reserve	101
	I. Arul Aram and Carolin Arul
8	Indigenous Communities of the Chittagong Hill Tracts in Bangladesh: Coping with Environmental Perils and Scoping Adaptive Capacities	113
	Remeen Firoz and Jonas Dahlström
Part IV Challenges for Communication in Sustainable Development
9	Rethinking Crisis Communication at a Time of Climate Change: Lessons from the Philippines	131
	Jude William Genilo
10	Media Perspectives on the Particulate Matter (PM 2.5) Crisis in China	143
	Yifan Zhang
11	Shifts and Challenges of Communication for Sustainable Development in Indonesia	155
	Gilang Desti Parahita
12	Communication of Inclusive Innovation for Sustainable Development in India	173
	Kiran Prasad
Part V Conclusion
13	Future Directions in Communication and Culture for Sustainable Development	189
	Kiran Prasad
	Index	197

Communication, Culture and Ecology
Rethinking Sustainable Development in Asia
Prasad, K. (Ed.)
2018, IX, 199 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-981-10-7103-4