Dear EuroPloP author,

thanks for taking the time and energy to submit a pattern paper to EuroPloP '98. Soon the shepherding process will begin which, for those of you who've never been shepherded before, is fun, challenging and ultimately rewarding. Before the shepherding can start, however, the shepherds need to be able to access a copy of your submission. The EuroPloP web-site has a new page with all submissions listed on it:

<http://www.coldewey.com/Papers/PatternSubmissions.html>

Could you please visit this page in the next few days and check that your submission is listed (you don't need to check that it can be downloaded as you'll soon hear from your shepherd if they can't). If your submission is not listed please let us know at europlop98@sdm.de.

Cheers,

Paul (& Jens)
