

LEVEL: THORACIC 7

Thoracic levels are always identified by the small amount of gray matter and the vast bulk of white matter.

White Matter. The ascending and descending fibers for the lower limbs, abdomen, trunk, and pelvis provide the bulk of white matter for this section.

Gray Matter. There are three horns present in this level: dorsal (sensory), ventral (motor), and intermediate (preganglionic sympathetic).

