

The fault cutoff map in this exercise is the America seam, interpreted in Fig. 8.18. The vertical exaggeration is greater in the exercise to make the construction easier. Note that footwall elevations toward the NW end of the fault zone are those of the small overlapping fault.