

The simple shear method is an appropriate restoration technique for a half graben. The cross section in Fig. 11.74 restores well with vertical simple shear, validating the cross section.