

Is the fault in Fig. 10.29 valid? If not, can it be corrected? The well near the center of the map is thought to have a stratigraphic separation of 15.0 m. Is that correct? If not, what is stratigraphic separation is consistent with the map?

Fig. 10.29.
Structure contour map of an offset horizon. Scale in m, small square is a well location

