§ 1 Rights Granted

The copyright to the Contribution identified above is transferred to the Publisher London Ltd (hereinafter called the Publisher). The copyright transfer covers the exclusive right to reproduce and distribute the Contribution, including reprints, translations, photographic reproductions, microform, electronic form (offline, online), or any other reproductions of similar nature (for U.S. government employees: to the extent transferable).

The Publisher will take, either in its own name or in that of the Author, any necessary steps to protect these rights against infringement by third parties. It will have the copyright notice inserted into all editions of the Contribution according to the provisions of the Universal Copyright Convention (UCC) and dutifully take care of all formalities in this connection, either in its own name or in that of the Author.

If the Author is an employee of the U.S. Government and performed this work as part of his employment, the work is not subject to U.S. copyright protection. If the work was performed under Government contract, but the Author is not a Government employee, the Publisher grants the U.S. Government royalty-free permission to reproduce all or part of the work and to authorize others to do so for U.S. Government purposes. If the Author is an officer or employee of the U.S. Government reference will be made to this status on the signature page.

The Author retains the right to republish the Contribution in any collection consisting solely of the Author's own works without charge and subject only notifying the Publisher in writing prior to such publication of the intent to do so and to ensuring that the publication by the Publisher is properly credited and that the relevant copyright notice is repeated verbatim.

The Author warrants that the work has not heretofore been published in whole or in part, that it contains no libelous or otherwise defamatory statements and does not infringe on any copyright, trademark, patent, statutory rights or proprietary rights of others; that all statements asserted as facts are true or are based on reasonable research for accuracy and that no formula, procedure or prescription in the Work would cause injury if used or followed in accordance with the instructions and/or warning contained in the Work; and that he will indemnify the Publisher against any cost, expenses or damages for which the Publisher may become liable as a result of any breach of this warranty. He also warrants that he has obtained the customary permission from the copyright owner or his legal representative whenever a passage from copyrighted material is quoted or a table or illustration from such material is used. In these cases the Author is required to indicate in his Contribution the precise source and to forward the written permission to the Publisher on delivery of the typescript.

§ 2 Delivery of the Work

The Author agrees to deliver to the Editor not later than April, 9th, 2007 comprising approximately 8 printed pages, including approximately 4 illustrations.

§ 3 Publication

The Publisher agrees to publish the said Contribution at its own cost and expense.

§ 4 Author's Copies

The Author is entitled to obtain copies of the published work in which his contribution appears for his personal use at a discount of 33 1/3% off the list-price directly from the Publisher. Furthermore, the Author is entitled to purchase for his personal use (directly from the Publisher) other books published by the Publisher at a discount of 33 1/3% off the list price. Resale of such copies is not permitted.

§ 5 Entire Agreement

This agreement shall be deemed to be a contract made in England and will be construed and applied in all respects in accordance with English law and the parties submit and agree to the jurisdiction of the English courts.
