

1. Misidentification of the medicinal plant
2. Contamination of the plant
 - e.g. chemicals, heavy metals, microorganisms
3. Use of unsuitable or wrong parts of the plant
4. Variations in the formation of active plant substances due to changed conditions of growth
5. Adulteration of active agents during conditioning
6. Mislabelling of the end product