

1. Amount of noxious substance
2. Concentration
3. Duration of action
4. Method of uptake
5. Extent of protein binding
6. Degree of distribution or accumulation of the noxa within the liver or other organs
7. Radioactivity of the substance
8. Excretability of the noxa
9. Previous liver damage or coexisting liver disease
10. Coexistent strain caused by alcohol and drugs
11. Age, gender
12. Nutritional status