

Extravasation of Cytotoxic Agents

Digital Contents

▶ Patient Information Sheet	support material for providing the necessary information for patients in a standardised format
▶ Documentation of an extravasation course	for detailed documentation of extravasations, their development, and results of treatment
▶ List of cytotoxic agents for the extravasation kit	cytotoxic agents in alphabetical order allow for the type of damage to be determined quickly, so measures can be taken accordingly
▶ List of general measures	three categories (I, II, III) of general measures are described according to type of damage (non-vesicant/irritant/vesicant)
▶ List of substance specific measures	contains instructions for administration of hyaluronidase, DMSO, topical cooling and heat, as well as measures to be avoided under any circumstances
▶ Contents of extravasation kit	all components of the extravasation kit (products, number, storage details) are listed here
▶ Information for wards and out-patient departments	contains details about the location of the extravasation kit and its contents, including number of items and storage conditions for individual items
▶ Example of an in-house list of agents	offers a structures for compiling an extravasation kit that meets the specific needs of a particular hospital
▶ Suggested labelling of extravasation kit	presented in the form of a sample label