

Basic

*Fig. 1. Full face frontal view.
 *Fig. 2. Full face basal view - head slightly extended.
 *Fig. 3. Full face basal view - head more extended.
 *Fig. 4. Full face oblique right view - head slightly rotated from frontal view.
 *Fig. 5. Full face oblique right view - head rotated halfway from frontal view to profile view.
 *Fig. 6. Full face oblique right view - head more rotated from frontal view.
 *Fig. 7. Full face profile right view.
 *Fig. 8. Full face oblique left view - head slightly rotated from frontal view.
 *Fig. 9. Full face oblique left view - head rotated halfway from frontal view to profile view.
 *Fig. 10. Full face oblique left view - head more rotated from frontal view.
 *Fig. 11. Full face profile left view.

Nasal

*Fig. 12. Nasal profile with ruler.
 *Fig. 13. Nasal base with ruler.
 *Fig. 14. Face down view.
 *Fig. 15. Depressor septi muscle action profile views.
 a: at rest.
 b: while smiling.

Orthognathic - Orthodontic

*Fig. 16. Full face profile view while smiling - showing the upper incisors.
 *Fig. 17. Full face frontal view while smiling - showing the upper incisors in a posed smile.
 *Fig. 18. Full face frontal view with mouth retractors.
 *Fig. 19. Close-up view of the lips at rest with ruler.
 *Fig. 20. Close-up view of the lips while smiling (posed smile) with ruler.

Eyes

*Fig. 21. Eye view looking straight ahead.
 *Fig. 22. Eye view looking up.
 *Fig. 23. Eye view looking down.
 *Fig. 24. Closed eye view (unforced lids closure).
 *Fig. 25. Closed eye view (forced lids closure).
 *Fig. 26. Eye oblique right view looking straight ahead.
 *Fig. 27. Eye oblique left view looking straight ahead.

Ears

*Fig. 28. Ear frontal view.
 *Fig. 29. Rear ear view.
 *Fig. 30. Right ear close-up view.

*Natural Head Position view.

Meneghini F.: Clinical Facial Photography in a Small Office: Lighting Equipment and Technique.
 Aesth. Plast. Surg. 25:299-306, 2001.

Nasal

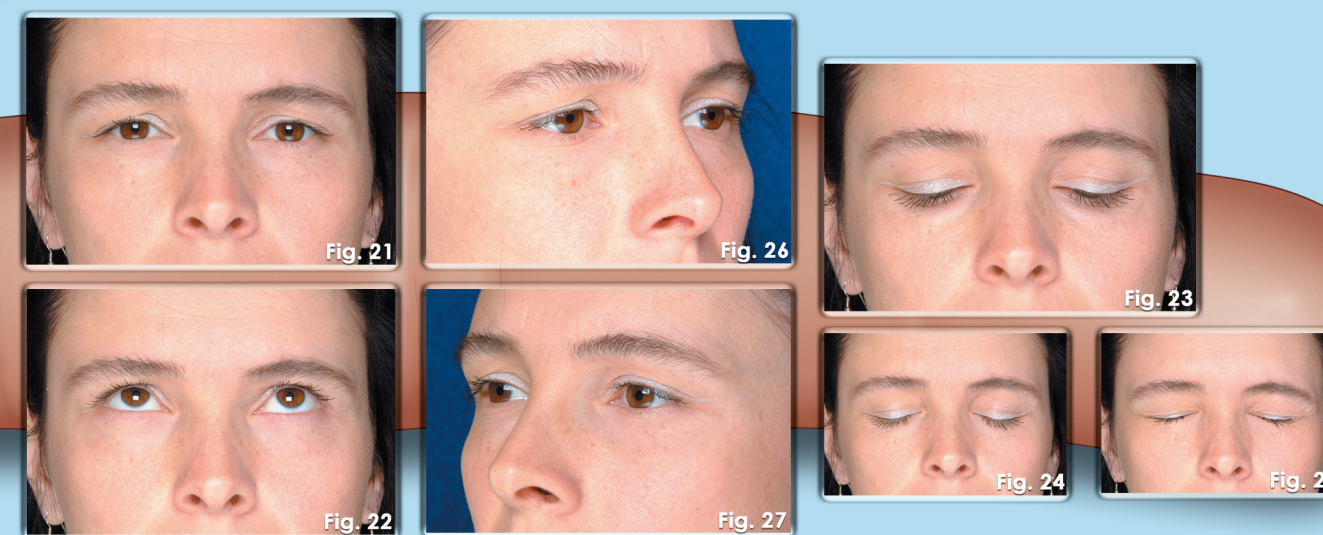

VIEWS OF CLINICAL FACIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

Orthognathic Orthodontic

Eyes

Ears

Basic

